'Who Powers You' is a contest being hosted by B-Y Electric, our power supplier East River Electric Cooperative, and the other Touchstone Energy® Cooperatives in this region.

This is the first year of a local version of the 'Who Powers You' contest which seeks to highlight local figures who are making a difference in their communities.

Nominations were accepted from the end of February 2022 until April 1, 2022. Weekly finalists were announced and featured on Keloland Living starting March 2nd. The three contest winners will be announced on Keloland Living on May 11, 2022. The 'Who Powers

You' contest grand prize winner will receive a $3,000 prize. A second-place winner will receive $1,500, and the third place winner will receive $500.

We are excited to announced that there were two contest finalist in the B-Y Electric service territory!

KEN CARDA

B-Y Electric's very own Operations Manager Ken Carda was selected as a finalist, and he was featured on Keloland Living on March 24th.

Ken was nominated in recognition of his involvement in the Tabor community, his willingness to help his neighbors, and as the fire chief in Tabor.

STACY STARZL HANSEN

Stacy Starzl Hansen, the Executive Director of River City Domestic Violence Center, was also selected as a finalist, and she was featured on April 7th.

Stacy was nominated due to her leadership of River City Domestic Violence Center. In her Keloland interview Stacy mentioned that she has always worked in a helping profession. Through River City Domestic Violence Center, she works to give a voice to the voiceless.
